

Helena Valente began working with people that use drugs in 2004. Helena worked for over 10 years coordinating national and European research and intervention projects in the drugs field. At the moment she is a researcher and Ph.D. Candidate at the Faculty of Psychology and Educational Sciences of the Porto University in Portugal and a founding member of Kosmicare association.