

Marta Torrens MD, PhD., Psychiatrist, Head of Addiction program at the Institute of Neuropsychiatry and Addictions-Hospital del Mar in Barcelona, Professor of Psychiatry at the Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona. She is working in the drug abuse field in clinical, teaching and research. Her main clinical experience is the assessment and treatment of substance use disorders (opioid, cocaine, cannabis, alcohol...), in psychiatric comorbidity among substance users (dual diagnosis) and evaluation of new psychoactive substances. She has participated in many conferences and regarding good practices in the clinical treatment of drug abuse. She has collaborated with international organizations including: EMCDDA, WHO, UNOD&C in the field of addiction treatment. She has more than 250 publications in the area and she has been invited as an expert at many scientific congress and meetings.